

Seneca White Deer Inc. has announced its 2009 tour schedule for the conservation area of the former Seneca Army Depot. Don't miss out on this limited opportunity to see these unique deer. It is first come - first served.

The former Army Depot Conservation Area is home to the world's largest and only herd of white deer, nearly 200 individuals strong. Bring your camera and binoculars.

Don't delay in sending in your registration as seats and times are limited.

Stay at the Holiday Inn Waterloo/Seneca Fall after touring our beautiful wildlife! The newly renovated Holiday Inn is nestled in the Heart of the Finger Lakes Region.

There is plenty more to do: waterfalls and gorges await hikers.

Call us and ask about our 'Wildlife Special'. Each booking includes breakfast for two up to $20 in Our Heritage Café. This offer is only good for 2009 White Deer tour dates.

October 17-18, 23-25 and October 30-31
& November 1

Stay for a couple of days and visit Montezuma National Wildlife Refuge

Bald eagles have resided on the refuge since 1986, first producing offspring in 1987. Several pair of osprey also nest on the refuge. There are established nesting colonies of black terns, black-crowned night-herons, and great blue herons. Dewatered refuge impoundments provide significant foraging habitat.
